U.S. Commander Says Our Forces Quite Adequate'

By SPENCER MOSSA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The top U.S. commander in the Pacific said today considerable progress had been made in getting supplies to Quemoy during the last two weeks. As he spoke, the Nationalists announced another supply convoy had cracked the Communist blockade.

Adm. Harry D. Felt flew in for conferences with Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek at the start of the fifth week of the Formosa Strait crisis. Felt described the situation as serious but said "I am not discouraged."

Asked whether the United States had sufficient forces in the Pacific to deal with any situation, he replied "The forces are very, very strong and quite adequate."

Felt declined to comment on whether the American military buildup on Formosa would continue.

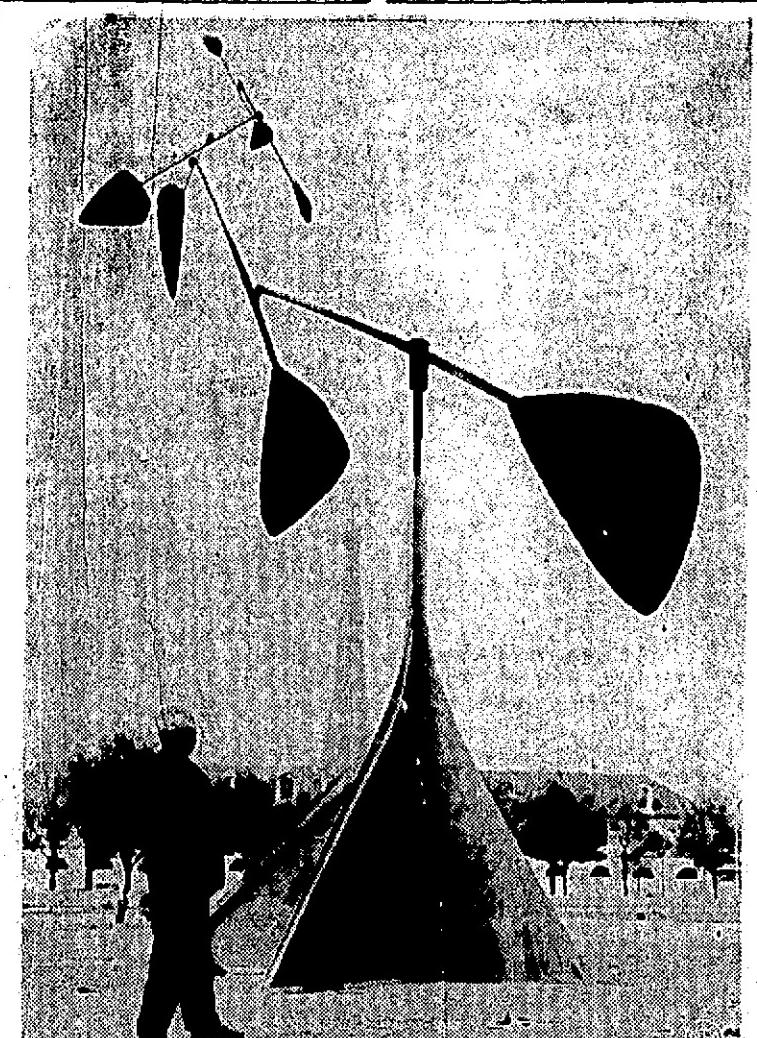

The Nationalist Defense Ministry did not say how many cargo ships reached Quemoy today or how much cargo they discharged.

The Communist shore batteries poured in 1,034 shells while the ships were at the beach, but the Nationalists said they withdrew safely.

Earlier the Nationalists claimed a naval victory over Communist torpedo boats.

Two Nationalist gunboats tangled with three Communist gunboats shortly before midnight Friday night, the Defense Ministry said. It claimed one torpedo boat was sunk in the action 35 miles south of Quemoy and the other two fled.

One Nationalist gunboat suffered slight damage but no casualties, the ministry reported. Foreign newsmen are now barred from the Quemoy area and were unable to confirm the claims.

WINDBLOWN ART — Upstaging the famed Eiffel Tower, in background, is the newest of Paris landmarks—a strange work of art that moves with the wind. It's a mobile called "Modern Times," created by famed sculptor Alexander Calder for the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization's new palace.

This City Has A Long History of Outstanding County Fairs

By MARY ANITA LASETER

Next week, Hope will again be the scene of a fair. And, again, the scene of excitement which only a fair can bring.

It has always been that way—even as far back as 1887, when the first fair was held in Hope. The Fair Grounds were located where the "Y" is in the L&N Railroad yards today, with the entrance gates where 5th Street is.

In those days, the fair was always held in October, and people from miles around turned out for it. The city of Hope had a population of approximately 2,500, but on Fair Day twice that many were at the fair itself. Folks came in wagons and hacks. They brought the whole family and spent the whole day.

Horses have always played an important part in fairs in our town. Back in 1887, though, instead of rodeos there was horse racing. All sorts of horse racing—sulky racing, trotting, pacing, running. And, instead of a stock show, the greatest interest was placed on prize chickens. Poultry will again be a featured exhibit this year.

Not only did the exhibit hall display the cooking and sewing hand-work of the homemaker, it also featured the accomplishments of various classes in school. Local merchants donated prizes for the winners, and usually it was a choice of either cash or merchandise.

A carnival atmosphere was present when those attending the fair made balloon ascensions in the daytime and watched fireworks displays at night. Festivities ended with a beauty pageant until the late 1920's.

At the first Hempstead County Fair, if a person spoke of a contest to find the most beautiful babe, he was talking about a contest among infants, no young ladies.

It was only natural that when a daughter was born to a Hope family during the time the first fair was in Hope, they proudly named her for that event. Fair Hope Pendleton (Mrs. A. E. Wending in adult life) was born during the first fair in Hope and passed away a short time before the 1958 presentation.

There have been changes to be sure. The name is now the Third District Livestock Show, and it is at the beautiful Fair Park which is equipped with all sorts of facilities to handle such an event.

But one thing hasn't changed. That is the enthusiasm heard in the voice of one who says, "I see you at Fair Park next week!"

Deregulation Order Stay Is Denied

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman today denied a motion by the Norfolk School Board to stay his order for desegregation of six city schools. This edged the schools closer to being shut down under Virginia's laws.

The board requested the delay at the time it filed a notice of appeal of Hoffman's integration order with the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Complying with Hoffman's 18-month-old integration order, the board on Aug. 29 told him it would reluctantly assign 17 Negro pupils to Norfolk's six white schools.

At first, the board rejected the transfer requests of these 17 on the grounds the pupils either would be isolated in the white schools, or that their presence would add to racial tensions. Hoffman said these reasons were invalid.

But one thing hasn't changed. That is the enthusiasm heard in the voice of one who says, "I see you at Fair Park next week!"

U. S. Transport, French Jet Collide

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — U.S. Air Force headquarters here reported a U.S. transport plane carrying six U.S. persons and a French jet collided today 17 miles north west of Paris.

The Air Force said three bodies have been taken from the wreckage of the American plane, a C-130 Hercules transport which fell between the towns of Tocil and Poiss. The French plane, a twin-engine Douglas, was said to have been en route to Germany.

The American plane was en route from Paris to Spangdahlem, Germany. Considerable smoke and fire were seen from the plane.

Rozzell Praises Help From Supervisors

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Assn., today urged county school supervision to help wage a campaign to retain the three per cent sales tax.

"It is up to you to tell voters in your county what a defeat of the tax will mean to your schools," Rozzell told the supervisors.

The 1957 act increasing the levy from two to three per cent will appear on the general election ballot. Defeat of the measure will cause the tax to revert to two per cent.

Arkansas — Considerable cloudiness with scattered showers and thunderstorms today.

Germans Trying to Teach Kids Baseball

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — Representatives of eight European countries wind up discussions today on how to make baseball popular among European youngsters. The sports officials are conferring with U.S. Air Force Lt. Col. Dominic J. George, first European director of Babe Ruth baseball.

The Babe Ruth League provides competition for boys between the age of 13-15. Some 60,000 youngsters in the United States and Canada play annually in some 1,200 leagues, each three to five teams strong.

Dulles Didn't Offer Enough to Chinese

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles is like a man gingerly shoving a piece of steak towards a tiger, only to have the tiger roar at him: "I said a big piece of steak."

He could have guessed it wasn't big enough for the Communist appetite when he proposed Thursday in a mild speech at the United Nations a cease-fire as a preliminary for bringing peace in the Formosa area.

The Red Chinese and Soviets both jumped him. The Peking radio blasted the idea: "There is no question of a cease-fire since China and the United States are not at war."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko let go at him with this: Only a complete U.S. military withdrawal from the entire Formosa area, including Formosa, would bring peace to the Far East.

This was bad enough. But it wasn't all. To still another idea put in circulation by American officials, but unofficially and perhaps as a trial balloon, a representative of America's ally Chiang Kai-shek, said: "Nuts."

This was the idea that maybe if the Red Chinese agreed to a cease-fire, some arrangement could be worked out to demilitarize Quemoy. That couldn't sit well with Chiang and probably wouldn't with the Red Chinese either.

Demilitarizing Quemoy would most certainly require withdrawal of Chiang's troops back to the Formosa stronghold and thus mean the end of all his talk, and Nationalist hopes, of retaking the China mainland someday.

He'd hardly agree to this himself. He'd have to be pressured into it by the United States. But would the Red Chinese settle for the mere demilitarization of Quemoy which they claim as their own? Probably not.

Now comes Thursday, tackled Chiang's new ambassador to the United States, George Yeh. They asked about the demilitarization idea, and first got this answer: The Eisenhower administration has not told us officially about such a proposal.

But when asked what he himself thought of it, Yeh replied in on-Chinese language: "Demilitarization, I think, is nuts."

All of which illustrates how the United States let Chiang get it into a box and slam the lid. Now it wants out. Explaining how it got in is easier than how it is to get out.

The United States is pledged to defend Chiang's forces on Formosa but not the Quemoy and Matsu islands near the mainland. Dulles has said the islands by themselves are not worth going to war for.

But Chiang moved so many of his troops to Quemoy from Formosa that, if they were overwhelmed by the Red Chinese, not only would he suffer disaster but the American problem of holding Formosa would be complicated too.

Yet the United States didn't oppose his moving the troops to Quemoy. Now the United States is in the position of having to defend them.

President Eisenhower gave this as a reason for fighting for Quemoy: The Communists shouldn't be allowed to shoot their way into what they want. This, however, has not been a consistent American principle. For example: The United States let the Communists take half of Viet Nam—but not Korea—and it stood by helplessly when the Soviets flushed the Hungarian revolt.

Farmer had declined to pay the tax, arguing much of it would be used to finance the Korean War. He maintained wars were illegal under international law. Farmer failed in two attempts to subpoena former President Truman to appear in court for questioning on the conduct of the Korean conflict.

The 57-year-old attorney's attempt to establish an international government drew some 500 persons from 45 countries to the world constituent assembly at Geneva. Farmer was elected president and a proposed world constitution was drawn up. Little more was heard from this group.

TORQUAY, England (AP) — Britain's Liberal party today called for neutralization of Formosa and giving up Quemoy and the offshore islands to the Chinese Communists.

More than 1,000 delegates at the party's annual convention urged Britain to support admission of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations.

The Liberal party is waging an aggressive campaign to become a political force after being out of power for the last time in 1950.

Educational TV Broadcast for Students Today

By ED MARTIN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A television station scheduled an educational broadcast today for students enrolled at Little Rock's closed-down high schools. But some white pupils were enrolling for regular classes, even on an integrated basis.

Tension was high over the school closing ordered by Gov. Orval E. Faubus to prevent the attendance of seven Negroes at Central High School.

More than 200 students have transferred out of Central, Hall High and Tech High. Only Horace Mann High School for Negroes has had no withdrawals.

At all-white Hall, 130 students more than one-sixth of the 731-member student body—had pulled out as of Friday.

Sixty-five Hall High students met at a church Friday and adopted a resolution pleading for the immediate reopening of their school as a public school.

The resolution said they feared education would suffer if Hall remained closed and urged that classes resume "even if, upon re-opening, qualified Negro students of the Hall High district may be assigned to classes in our school."

The Red Chinese and Soviets both jumped him. The Peking radio blasted the idea: "There is no question of a cease-fire since China and the United States are not at war."

Leaders of the group said copies of the resolution would be mailed to Faubus and to federal officials.

David Johnson, a Student Council leader who helped arrange the meeting, said he thought the resolution conveyed the feeling of most Hall High students.

Faubus commented on the students' resolution Friday night while en route to Lexington, Ky., to attend a four-day meeting of the Southern Governors Conference.

At Danville, Ky., the governor said "65 out of 4,000 students doesn't seem like very many to me."

Enrollment in the four high schools totaled 3,690 before the transfers started, school records showed.

Albus wouldn't comment on reports that the Little Rock school board feared to reopen the schools as private and segregated institutions. Nor would he talk about a report that he was considering letting Horace Mann High open as an integrated school to relieve pressure on students anxious to get back to their studies.

The governor has asked the school board to voluntarily hand over all four schools to a private corporation formed this week but the board has not answered this request.

Hope Whips DeQueen 6 to 0 for 2nd Victory; Boothe Tallys TD

Hope Defense Big Factor in Leopard's Loss

The Hope Bobcats put up a determined defense last night to defeat the DeQueen Leopards 6-0. The game was played in rain-soaked Hammons stadium.

The Bobcats' speedy backfield was slowed by the mud and rain, but fullback Don Boothe was able to penetrate the DeQueen line for the only TD.

In the first quarter both teams were held scoreless. The Bobcats were kept out of their deep territory by the punting of halfback John Graves.

To open up the second quarter halfback Dewey Cox ran a punt back 50 yards to put the ball on the Bobcat 9, but the Bobcats' goal-line defense held them there for four downs. The Bobcats took possession of the ball and Graves booted the pigskin 55 yards to get Hope out of their own territory. The half ended with a 0-0 score.

In the third quarter the Bobcats recovered a DeQueen fumble on the visitors' 20. It was all the quarter-backing of Dave Watkins and running of fullback Don Boothe from there on. Boothe plunged one foot for the TD. The run for extra point was no good.

The highlight of the 4th quarter was when DeQueen's Dickson punted and it went out on the Hope 6-inch line. Once again the punting of John Graves kept the Bobcats out of their own territory. John Graves recovered a DeQueen fumble on the 40 that stopped a spirited DeQueen drive. From there on the Bobcats had possession of the ball.

Coach John Pierce commented, "I think it was team determination and willpower that beat the Leopards."

About 1500 loyal fans saw the hardfought ball game.

The Bobcats' journey to Smackover in an important district tilt next week.

THE STORY: Although nesters have attacked the Four-Arrow ranch, Foreman John Lane says he will not retaliate. His men believe one of the nesters was wounded.

Chapter XII.

Lane made his way up to the county offices on the second floor of O'Meara's building.

He entered the room occupied by the county clerk's office and stopped at the small counter which stood near the door. Most of the room was filled with ledgers. He spent an hour searching the books that the young clerk put in front of him, and when he went back downstairs, he was convinced that the page which contained the registration of Thurs Sorenson's deed could have been torn out of the ledger.

Sorenson's deed, and the records of it were missing because someone wanted to cause trouble between the nesters and the Four-Arrow. Someone was trying to put the Four-Arrow's back to the wall, depreciate its value so that it could be bought at a low figure.

Mirko Mitchell, Iraim swore by Mitchell. That left, Lane's way of thinking only Ellis Draper and Tom Cole, and it was preposterous to suspect the sheriff of trying to beat down the value of the ranch he would own anyway when he married Iraim.

Draper was the one, the trouble maker; he had to be.

Sheriff Cole's swivel chair was still empty, but the pot bellied stove had been freshly stoked with mosquito chunks, so Lane decided to wait a while for the lawman's return. He took a seat on a wavy bench, and while he sat, Lane rolled a cigarette, smoked and contemplated his own position on this range. He'd come here with the idea of taking over a ranch for Cole's Richards and clearing it if squatters yet Richards had enriched him into a different predicament.

Now, actually, all Lane was doing was watching the comings and goings of the McKenzie girl and of the cowhands he'd hired to help him. Even Ken Webster was wondering about him. Lane knew.

The day last night had placed John Lane in a tough spot. The squatters had declared open war on the Four-Arrow and had closed into a room containing womenfolk, and since Lane didn't dare to assault the men, doubtless he'd be calling him a coward. They would speculate among themselves as to how long he had gotten his reputation as a gunfighter in the first place.

The front door opened and Lane heard a girl call, "Tom, come are you here?" He recognized that voice. Instantly, as the one he had heard in Bill's Draper's hotel room on his first night in Twenty Springs, it was much easier to identify a voice. Lane had learned the speaker wasn't in sight.
